Ring in the New Year with Cabaret, now on sale

WORCESTER, Mass. (September 26, 2017) – Based on Roundabout Theatre Company’s Tony® Award-winning production, Sam Mendes and Rob Marshall’s Cabaret is now on sale for its run at The Hanover Theatre for the Performing Arts, playing Thursday, December 28 through New Year’s Eve, Sunday, December 31.

Cabaret takes place at the infamous Kit Kat Klub, where the Emcee, Sally Bowles and a raucous ensemble tantalize the crowd and leave their troubles outside. But as life in pre-World War II Germany grows more and more uncertain, the decadent allure of Berlin nightlife may not be enough to get them through dangerous times.

Cabaret includes some of the most memorable songs in theatre history, from the title song to “Willkommen” and “Maybe This Time.” Leave your troubles outside. Life is beautiful at Cabaret. John Kander, Fred Ebb and Joe Masteroff created this incredible musical about following the heart while the world loses its way.

Tickets to Cabaret start at $39, with discounts available for theatre members and groups of 10 or more, and are also available as a part of the theatre’s 2017-2018 Broadway Series subscription. Tickets are available online at TheHanoverTheatre.org, by phone at 877.571.SHOW (7469) or at The Hanover Theatre box office located at 2 Southbridge Street in downtown Worcester.

Audio description will be available at the December 31, 1 p.m. performance, and ASL interpretation will be available at the December 31, 6:30 p.m. performance.
