WORCESTER, Mass. (June 11, 2018) Multiple Grammy® Award-winning jazz pianist and world-renowned singer, Diana Krall continues with the fourth North American leg of her international Turn Up The Quiet World Tour that has visited over 100 cities in Europe and North America thus far. Twenty-one additional U.S. concert dates have just been announced for this October and November, including The Hanover Theatre for the Performing Arts on October 6 at 8 p.m. Tickets go on sale to members of The Hanover Theatre on Thursday, June 14 at 10 a.m. and go on sale to the public on Friday, June 15 at 10 a.m.

Having previously visited Europe and South America, the Turn Up The Quiet World Tour has been wowing audiences with material from Krall's stunning latest album "Turn Up The Quiet" (Verve Records) and has now become the biggest in Mrs. Krall's career. Earning critical praise, DOWNBEAT Magazine called the album "spellbinding... Krall knows how to put her own distinctive stamp on decades-old standards, making them sound fresh and vibrant."

Turn Up The Quiet holds significant importance as it was the last recording Krall made with her long-time mentor and collaborator, producer Tommy LiPuma, before his sudden passing last year and is dedicated to his memory.

Diana Krall is the only jazz singer to have eight albums debut at the top of the Billboard Jazz Albums chart. To date, her albums have garnered five Grammy® Awards, ten Juno® Awards and have also earned nine gold, three platinum and seven multi-platinum albums. Krall's unique artistry transcends any single musical style and has made her one of the most recognizable artists of our time.
